

of electing trustees as described in subsection (1). The ordinance may extend the terms of incumbent trustees for not more than 1 year if necessary to provide for the eventual election of trustees. In any event, a trustee shall serve until his or her successor is qualified.

(4) A copy of each resolution and ordinance adopted pursuant to this section shall be forwarded to the director of the bureau of elections of the department of state.

Appointive officers; term.

(MCL 62.6)

Sec. 6. All appointive officers, except officers appointed to fill vacancies in elective offices, shall hold their respective offices until the second Monday of April next after such appointment, and until their successors are qualified unless a different term of office is prescribed in this act, in an ordinance authorized by this act, or in the ordinance or resolution creating the office. An officer appointed to fill a vacancy in an elective office shall hold office until the next regular village election, and until his or her successor is elected and qualified. An officer appointed to fill a vacancy in an appointive office shall hold office until his or her successor is appointed and qualified.

Qualifications for office; void votes; "in default" defined; oath.

(MCL 62.7)

Sec. 7. (1) A person shall not be elected to an office unless he or she is an elector of the village.

(2) A person in default to the village is not eligible for any office in the village. All votes in an election for or any appointment of a person in default to the village are void. As used in this subsection, "in default" means delinquent in payment of property taxes or a debt owed to the village if 1 of the following applies:

(a) The taxes remain unpaid after the last day of February in the year following the year in which they are levied, unless the taxes are the subject of an appeal.

(b) Another debt owed to the village remains unpaid 90 days after the due date, unless the debt is the subject of an administrative appeal or a contested court case.
